muer Eurroughs obtained a vardict of $100 to his suit against Sitperintendent Hastman, Captain Johnon and Leutenant Hurley at 9:45 o'clock last night. The verdict is directed against Eastman only, no recovery being had against the subordisate officers. The jury returned resterday morning and the day was secupied with arguments until 4 p. m. Judge Adelt's pharge was decidedly fatorable to the plaintiff, the jury being instructed that he was entitled to a verdict, the main question being as to the amount. Only eleven jurors were present yesterday, Warren G. Goodale having been excused on account of sickness. The costs will be assessed to Superintendent Eastman. The arrest of Burrougns in the opera house was admittedly made without process, and though the delegiants sought to show that Burrough's business had been helped rather than injured by the set-vertising received, the claim was not sufficiently established.

C. A. Delaney of Holyoke Mass., Suffered from Extreme Nervousness and Could Not Sleep-He took the Famous Remedy That Dartmouth College's Great Professor First Prescribed-Its Good and Lasting Effects Were Soon Seen.

Of all the thousands of unsolicited testimonials that have come from every state in the union, from those who have been made well by the use of that great remedy which was first prescribed by Dartmouth's famous professor, E. Pheips, M. D., LL, D., none teach a better lesson than those sent by men of affairs, who by overwork and worry have begun to suffer from sleeplessness and other forms of nervous exhaustion, and found health and renewed vitality in the use of Paine's Celery Compound.

It has been well and by a compound.

It has been well said by a famous physician that this remedy is as superior to all ordinary sarsaparillas, tonics, nervines, as the diamond is to common glass. Paine's Celery Compound is not a patent medicine. It is the prescription of one of the most emment pracutioner's that medicine has had. It is the remedy that when work begins to be a little less facile, and one begins to sleep badly, and the thoughts of the day invest his dreams, and he rises unfreshed. and finds that day after day his work grows more trying, and that perhaps with certain new symptoms, such as giddiners, dimners of sight, neuralgis of the face, he has entire nights of insomnia and growing difficulty in the use of his mental powers—it is the remedy that should be taken at once, and it will at
